CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS
WALNUT GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH
FREDONIA, KENTUCKY

CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

We declare and establish this constitution for the preservation and security of the principles of our faith, and that this body may be governed in an orderly Christian manner. This constitution will preserve the liberties of each individual member of this church and the freedom of action of this body in its relation to other churches.

ARTICLE I

NAME

This body of believers shall be known as the Walnut Grove Missionary Baptist Church, meeting at Route one, (#1) Fredonia, Kentucky 42411, affiliated with the Caldwell-Lyon Baptist Association, The Kentucky Baptist Convention and The Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE II

OBJECTIVES

To be a dynamic spiritual organism empowered by the Holy Spirit to share Christ with as many people as possible in our church, community and through-out the world.

To be a worshiping fellowship, experiencing an awareness of God, recognizing His person, and responding in obedience to His leadership.

To help people experience a growing Knowledge of God and man.

To experience an increasingly meaningful fellowship with God and fellow believers.

To be a church that ministers unselfishly to persons in the community and world in Jesus' name.

To be a church whose purpose is to be Christ like in our daily living by emphasizing total commitment of life, personality, and possessions to the Lordship of Christ.

ARTICLE III

STATEMENT OF FAITH

We believe in the Lordship of Christ as the eternal Son of God, Redeemer, Savior, who was born of the virgin Mary by the Holy Spirit; who died on Calvary's cross for the believers sin and also sins of the whole world; and who arose from the dead, ascended into heaven, and now reigns from the right hand of the Father until He shall come again.

We believe that without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin.

We believe the Bible to be the inspired written Word of God and is our supreme and sufficient source of authority for faith and practice. We believe both Old and New Testament are verbally inspired by God and are without error in the original writings.

Salvation is the gift of God's grace and is received when one repents of sin and places their faith and trust in Christ Jesus as Lord and Savior.

Church membership is available to those who give evidence of repentance and faith publicly and who submit to baptism by immersion.

We believe that the only baptism in the New Testament is that administered to those who have consciously responded to the Gospel in repentance and faith and which is performed through immersion.

We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are the only ordinances in the New Testament and are symbols and as such do not have any saving value.

We believe that Baptism and the Lord's Supper are church ordinances and as such only the church has authority to administer them.

We believe that every individual is responsible for choosing his eternal destiny and is free to make such choice. No person is predestined to eternal life or eternal death without their own choosing.

We believe that the local fellowship of baptized believers is autonomous, or self-governing and self-determining and therefore we recognize no authoritative body outside the local congregation.

We will not participate in national and international bodies made up of different denominations unless the particular program or issue is approved by the congregation on the basis of the particular issue involved.

We believe in the separation of Church and State which we interpret to mean a Free Church and a Free State. In operation this belief means that neither church nor state should regulate the functions of the other. It is understood that as long as the church is in the state, it shall be subject to those laws which are not related to religious affairs and that the church will continually attempt to lift the moral level of government by Christian example.

ARTICLE IV

GOVERNMENT

The government of this church shall be vested in the body of believers who compose its membership. This government shall be under the direction of the Lord Jesus Christ who is the head of the church in all things. It shall be subject to the authority of no other ecclesiastical body, and shall be independent in form and the right of administration shall be in the body, subject always to the leadership and will of Jesus Christ. So far as may be consistent with the principles and teachings of the Word of God. This church shall cooperate and have representation in the denominational causes and organizations among Southern Baptist, including the Southern Baptist Convention, The Kentucky Baptist Convention, The Caldwell-Lyon Baptist Association and other affiliated causes and auxiliaries. Messengers allowed our church to any of the above mentioned bodies may be elected by the church at any business meeting.

ARTICLE V

CHURCH COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe by the spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour and Lord and, on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, we do now, in the presence of God, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another as one body in Christ.

We engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to walk together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this church, in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrine; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expense of the church, and relief of the poor, the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and secret devotions; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling; backbiting, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of, and use of intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Saviour.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid one another in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and Christian courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation and mindful to the rules of our Saviour to secure it without delay.

We moreover engage that when we remove from this place we will, as soon as possible, unite with some other church where we can carry out the spirit of this covenant and the principles of God's Word.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1 : General

The membership reserves the exclusive right to determine who shall be members of this church and the conditions of such membership.

Section 2: Candidacy

Any person may offer himself as a candidate for membership in this church. All such candidates shall be presented to the church in any regular church service for membership in any of the following ways:

- (1) As a candidate for baptism upon profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ after due examination and counsel by the pastor and/or deacons as to their Christian experience.
- (2) By promise of a letter of recommendation from another Baptist church of like faith and order. Such candidates for membership are immediately taken under the watch and care of the church and upon receipt of a church letter receive all rights and privileges of membership.
- (3) Upon a statement of prior conversion experience and baptism in a Baptist church of like faith and order when no letter is obtainable. Such candidates should be counseled by the pastor and/or deacons.
- (4) Any person coming from any church not of like faith and order or non-Baptist church must come by baptism upon profession of faith in Christ as Saviour and Lord, and shall be received as any candidate for baptism.

When any candidate shall present himself for membership in any of the mentioned ways, the pastor shall act in presenting such a candidate to the church for its official action. In the absence of the pastor the assistant moderator shall act in such matters, in case both pastor and assistant moderator are absent then this duty shall be vested in the chairman of deacons.

Should there be any dissent as to any candidate, such dissent shall be referred to a committee of deacons appointed by the pastor for investigation and the making of a recommendation to the church at the next regular business meeting, the church shall then act upon the report of the committee. The decision of the church shall be final, however a three fourths (3/4) majority vote of those church members present in business session and voting shall be required to elect such candidates to membership.

Section 3: Voting Rights of Members

Every member of the church is entitled to vote in all elections and on all questions to the church in conference, providing the member is present.

Section 4: Termination of Membership

Members ~~in~~ shall be terminated in the following ways:

- (1) By Death, the name of the deceased shall be removed by the church clerk automatically.
- (2) The name of members who have joined churches of other denominations shall be removed automatically by the church clerk, after verification.

- (3) Any member in good standing who desires a letter of recommendation to any other Baptist church of like faith and order is entitled to it upon request of that church.
- (4) By exclusion by action of this church. (see section 5: discipline)
- (5) At the request of the member in writing that the name be dropped from the church roll.

All memberships of this church terminated in any way does not mean those names shall be destroyed from our record books, but they shall be retained upon our records until our Lord Shall Return.

Letters of dismissal to unite with another Baptist church of like faith and order may be granted at any Wednesday night service or any regular business meeting.

Section 5: Discipline

Should a member become an offence to the church and to its good name by reason of immoral or unchristian conduct, or by persistent breach of his covenant vows, the church may terminate that persons membership in this body, but only after due notice and hearing, and after faithful efforts have been made to bring such member to repentance and amendment. A three fourth (3/4) majority vote of those members present and voting shall be required for such action.

The membership of no person shall be terminated (except by letter) at the meeting when the recommendation for such action is made.

Any person whose membership has been terminated for any condition which has made it necessary for the church to exclude that person may upon their request be restored to membership by a three fourths (3/4) majority vote of the church members present and voting upon evidence of his or her repentance and reformation. This shall apply to those that have requested their names be dropped from the church roll also.

ARTICLE II

CHURCH OFFICERS

Section 1: General

All church officers and teachers must be members of this church. The officers of this church shall be as follows:

Section 2: Pastor

A pastor shall be chosen and called by the church when a vacancy occurs in this office. His election shall take place in a meeting called for the purpose of which due notice shall have been given. A pulpit committee consisting of three (3) each of which shall be a member of this church, shall be elected by the church, or if the church so desires shall ask the present pastor to appoint this committee, to seek out a suitable pastor and their recommendation shall constitute a nomination, though any member has a privilege of making other recommendations to the committee. It shall be the duty of the pulpit committee to provide the prospective pastor with a copy of the constitution and by-laws, and he should be in harmony and agreement with them. 5

Election shall be by open ballot, an affirmative vote of a three fourths (3/4) majority of members present and voting being necessary for a choice. The pastor, thus elected and called, shall serve until the relationship is terminated by the request of the church or the pastor. If termination of pastorate is sought by either church or pastor, the other party is to be given a thirty-day advance notice. By mutual consent, the thirty-day notice may be dispensed with.

The pastor thus called shall have in charge the welfare and oversight of the church. He shall preside at all meetings of the church, except as herein provided. He shall be a member ex officio of all committees and auxiliary organizations.

Section 3: Pastor Qualifications

He shall be ordained or a candidate for ordination.

He shall meet all Biblical qualifications as set forth in I Timothy 3:1-7.

I Timothy 3:2, shall be interpreted by this church to mean that man who has had the misfortune of divorce, shall be disqualified as pastor on spiritual grounds.

He shall be affiliated with and sympathetic with the program of The Southern Baptist Convention and the doctrines, faith and practices of our church.

Section 4: Pastor Ordination

In no case will this church license or ordain a man to the gospel ministry who has two (2) living wives, as this church interprets I Timothy 3:2 to mean that a man is disqualified on spiritual grounds. Meaning one who has had the misfortune of divorce.

If a member feels that thru his life commitment that God is calling him to the gospel ministry and declares this in public worship at any of the regular worship services, then at that same meeting that the candidate surrenders he shall be licensed by action of the church. Should there be objections to his licensing then it shall be handled in the same manner as section two (2) candidacy under instructions in case of any dissent.

This church shall ordain a man to the gospel ministry only when the church calling him as pastor requests this church to do so.

Section 5: Pastor General Information

The pulpit committee shall also serve as a pulpit supply committee during the period the church is without a pastor.

All candidates for ordination shall be male members.

A pastors Job Description shall be drawn up and shall become a part of this by-laws as Section 6:

Section 6: Job Description for Pastor

DEACONS

Section 1: The number of Deacons shall be subject to the desire of the church.

Section 2: Duties of Deacons

The deacons' shall meet monthly on a date agreed to by the deacons for the purpose of fellowship, spiritual matters of the church and items of concern common to the membership of this church. A record of this meeting shall be made and recommendations made to the church in conference if need arises. A quorum in the deacon meetings shall be those deacons present and so shall they constitute the body. The chairmanship of the deacons shall rotate on a yearly basis beginning with the eldest to the least or youngest.

- (1) They are to be zealous to guard the unity of the spirit within the church in the bonds of peace.
- (2) They shall serve as a council of advice in conference with the pastor in all matters pertaining to the welfare and work of the church.
- (3) They are to establish and maintain personal fraternal relations with, and inspiring oversight of, all of the membership of the church.
- (4) They shall assist the pastor in administering the ordinance of the Lord's Supper.
- (5) In no case will the deacons act for or in behalf of the church except by specific authorization from the church.
- (6) Deacons coming into fellowship of this church, having been previously, ordained in another Baptist church, of like faith and order, shall not be considered as active deacons unless and until so elected by the church, and then only after they have been members of this church for at least one (1) year.

- (7) The deacons shall serve as a general pulpit committee; and in case of the absence of or inability of the pastor, subject to advice from the conference with him, they shall provide the pulpit supplies.
- (8) The deacons shall have access to a perpetual benevolence fund for those of the church or community, who from time to time may be in need. The amount is to be limited to seventy-five dollars ($75.00) for any one occasion, this fund may be used as long as any two (2) deacons or pastor and one deacon or more agree as to the need, without prior approval of the church.
- (9) When the church determines a need for additional deacons a nominating committee shall consist of the pastor and active deacons shall screen all nominations as to their beliefs of our Baptist faith and practice before making nominations. This committee shall present a list of men who are qualified to the church, then the congregation shall vote for the men or men, by secret ballot, for the deaconship. The one, or ones receiving the largest number of votes, after indicating their willingness to serve, shall be set aside for ordination to deaconship in a meeting called for that purpose. They shall be ordained in a manner of ordaining pastors and deacons.
- (10) If at such time this church may desire to use a rotating system of deacons, at that time the by-laws for the rotating system shall be drawn up and shall become and constitute a part of this by-laws, and shall be known as section 3.

Section 3: Rotating Deaconship

Section 4: Moderator

The pastor shall serve as moderator. In the absence of the moderator, the assistant moderator shall preside; or in the absence of both, the clerk shall call the church to order and an acting moderator shall be elected. The assistant moderator shall be elected yearly when all general officers are elected.
